

Event Programme

FROM BOOKS
ON Pi
TO BOOKS
ON PYRAMIDS.

CAPE TOWN BOOK FAIR
IN COOPERATION WITH FRANKFURTER BUCHMESSE

Where the story begins.

31 July - 2 August 2010

cape town international convention centre capetownbookfair.com

arts and culture

Department:
Arts and Culture
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

media | advertising | publishing | printing | packaging | sector education training authority

Monday 2 August

09:00-16:00 Rm 1.63 - 1.64

CTBF Youth Literature Conference. A forum of topics, themes and issues in literature for young adults.

CTBF / British Council

10:00 - 10:45 Poetry Café

Koning van Katoren. A youth novel that predates Harry Potter and yet its lead character shows remarkable similarities with Mr Potter. A best selling youth novel written by a politician? Indeed, Koning van Katoren is one of Europe's best-selling titles of all times. Political intrigue, personal sorrow and a suffering people who begin voting with their feet. Sound exciting? Come and find out more. The talk is aimed at adults and for kids who are smart enough to know that adults, like the evil ministers of Katoren, are in need of a rescue plan. The translator, Daniel Hugo will discuss the book. Protea Boekehuis

10:00 - 12:00 Rm 1.61

The Role of Publishing in Education. A publishing seminar presented by the Publishers Association of South Africa. PASA

10:00 - 18:00 MacMillan Stand K13

Chalk Hand Art - Come And Draw on our life size canvas and make your mark at the Cape Town Book Fair. MacMillan

10:00-10:45 Dalro Forum

Lawrence Anthony, the author of The Elephant Whisperer, takes you through his charming and moving account of how he saved a herd of elephants. Pan Macmillan

10:00-10:45 Rm 1.42

Two prominent authors: Muff Anderson and Dumisani Moyo, two prominent titles: Yizo Yizo and Media Policy. Yizo Yizo, this timely comment on culture simultaneously theorises affecting youths in the cities: issues of identity, Xenophobia, sexuality, Aids, unemployment, lack of support and suggestions that youth in Africa live and grow in a society composed of series of violence around which they must arrange themselves. Media Policy, a focus on policy-making across media sectors, including broadcasting, print and the new information and communications technologies (ICTs). Join us in this interesting event. Unisa Press

10:00-10:45 Rm 1.41

Publishers Association of South Africa. Where the story begins... A short workshop for enthusiasts wanting to develop a career in the publishing industry. PASA

10:00-11:00 Umsinsi Stand L9

Book Launch. Zuma's Road to Victory, a book of cartoons by Qap Mngadi. Umzinzi

10:30 - 11:00 MacMillan Stand K13

Jasper storytelling and fun activities. Come and meet Jasper and read about all his adventures. MacMillan

11:00-11:30 Pan Macmillan Stand K13

Where's Wally? Come and find Wally at the Pan Macmillan Stand. Pan Macmillan

11:00-11:45 Rm 1.41

Capacity Development in Health. Is it working? A panel discussion by Pearson Education. Pearson Education

11:00-11:45 Rm 1.42

Dictionary & Crossword Fun in the Classroom.

Dr Wanda Smith (Pharos Dictionaries), Petra Maree (NB Publishers) and Jack Dunwoody (crossword expert) demonstrate how dictionaries and crossword puzzles can be used to entertain and delight learners. NB Publishers

11:00-11:45 Dalro Forum

Chris van Wyk, the acclaimed author of Shirley Goodness and Mercy takes us through the journey of writing his second memoir Eggs to lay, chickens to hatch. Pan Macmillan

11:00-11:45 Poetry Café

Dr Mongane Wally Serote will be reading and talking about his latest work, Quite Footsteps, with Dr Sindwiwe Magona. New Africa Books

11:00-12:00 Pearson & Maskew Miller
Longman Stand G11

Smart kids: Make the Smart choice for a brilliant future. For parents and teachers of Grade R-3 learners.

How parents can really support their child's schoolwork in Literacy and Numeracy, and how teachers can feel secure in recommending Smart Kids to their parents. Activities for children while you listen! MML

12:00 - 12:45 Dalro Forum

Lapa Publishers. Educational Quiz - The well-known Vasvra expert, Dawid van Lill, will be the quiz master. Eight primary schools will participate in a quiz on Africa. The questions will be based on Dawid's latest book, Amazing Africa. LAPA

12:00 - 14:00 MacMillan Stand K13

Talking Stories - A Presentation and Demonstration with Kathy McCabe. Presented by MacMillan Education publishers.

MacMillan

12:00-12:30 Pan Macmillan Stand K13

Come and meet the author Adrian Varkel and listen to the story of Little Lucky Lolo and find out how his soccer dream comes alive. Pan Macmillan

12:00-12:30 Pearson & Maskew Miller
Longman Stand G11

X-Kits Study Guides and X-Kits Reference. For all learners in Grades 10-12 and their parents. How X-Kits can help you improve your grades in exams. Stand a chance to win a Free X-Kit English Reference Book. MML

12:00-12:45 Rm 1.41

So you want to be a sub-editor. A mini workshop by McGillivray & Associates. McGillivray & Associates

12:00-12:45 Poetry Café

Who reads short stories anyway? What do short Stories have to offer readers? A panel discussion with Henrietta Rose-Innes, Arja Salafranca, Sarah Lotz, Meg van der Merwe, Louis Greenberg. Facilitator: Ben Williams. Modjaji Publishing

12:00-14:45 Rm 1.43 - 1.44

National Library of South Africa - Public Lecture.

The role of libraries, media and literature in nation building. Chaired by Prof M Nkondo with Ms E Tise (IFLA President).

National Library SA

13:00-13:45 Dalro Forum

Phapo's Gift - Addressing HIV Aids by Knowledge Thirst publishers. Knowledge Thirst Publishers

13:00-14:00 Pearson & Maskew Miller
Longman Stand G11

Longman Active Study Dictionary with CD. Find out why Longman Active Study Dictionary with CD is ideal for Grades 10-12 learners and students. MML

14:00 - 14:45 Dalro Forum

Melinda Ferguson in conversation with Andrew Marjoribanks about her latest book, Hooked. Wordsworth Books

14:00-15:00 Pearson & Maskew Miller
Longman Stand G11

Smart kids: Make the Smart choice for a brilliant future. For parents and teachers of Grade R-3 learners.

How parents can really support their child's schoolwork in Literacy and Numeracy, and how teachers can feel secure in recommending Smart Kids to their parents. Activities for children while you listen! MML

14:30 - 15:00 MacMillan Stand K13

Jasper storytelling and fun activities. Come and meet Jasper and read about all his adventures. MacMillan

15:00-1600 Pearson & Maskew Miller
Longman Stand G11

X-Kits Study Guides and X-Kits Reference. For all learners in Grades 10-12 and their parents. How X-Kits can help you improve your grades in exams. Stand a chance to win a Free X-Kit English Reference Book. MML